

Conscious Innovator/Multi-Dimensional Being

Qualities and Characteristics

- Have intuitive experiences, some intense, that they can't explain or know what to do with.
- Are highly sensitive and empathic.
- "See through" and "do not buy into" the established structures of cultures, societies, and mass consciousness; do not conform.
- Feel they don't "fit" in the world.
- Feel they are supposed to be doing "something" but do not know what that something is.
- Are drawn to celestial information and astrology.
- Know "there is a better way".
- Are visionary and highly creative.
- They have very little patience for drama.
- Have strong desires, ideas, and passion to improve the world.
- Feels that they know their family but their family doesn't really know them
- Feel they are impersonating a human rather than really "being" human
- A strong desire to go home - a home they don't know where it is
